

2:22 Curve

2:22 Curve

A heavy-duty arm, built for monitors others can't hold.

The 2:22 Curve Monitor Arm is designed to support larger and heavier screens, providing strength and stability while allowing for effortless ergonomic positioning.

With support for screens up to 57" and 22kg per arm, 2:22 Curve is made for large and curved monitors. An advanced gas spring mechanism provides smooth, fluid movement, while generous arm extension and height adjustment allow for flexible screen positioning.

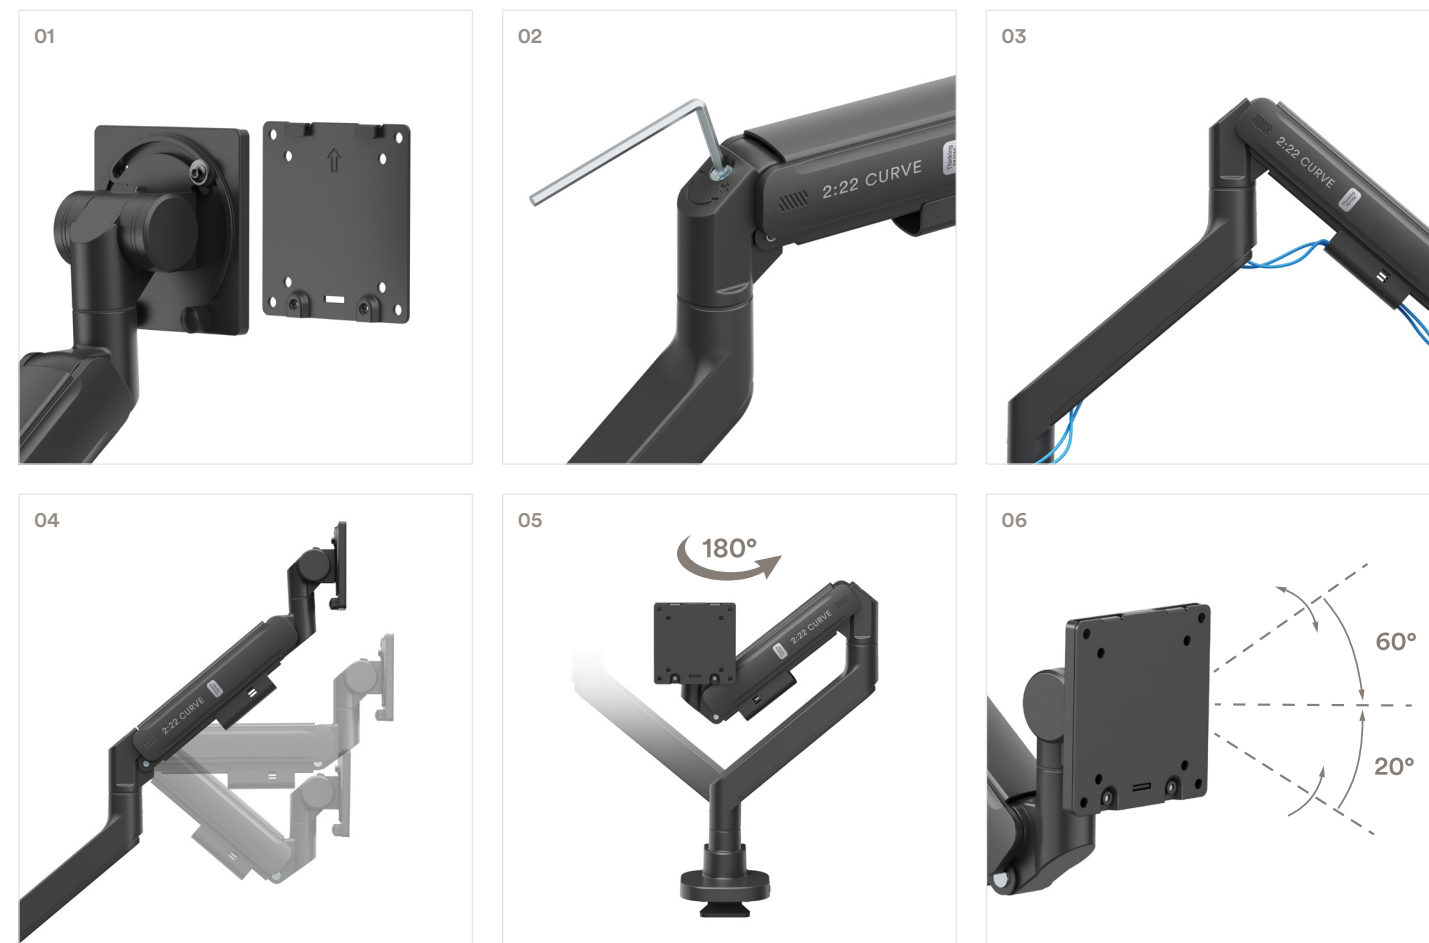

A versatile VESA mount supports 75, 100 and 200mm configurations, while built-in cable management keeps the workspace clean and organised.

Easily adjust the gas spring to suit varying monitor loads for quick, efficient setup. A quick-release 360° VESA plate also simplifies attaching and positioning the monitor.

- 01 Detachable VESA plate design enables easy installation.
- 02 Easily adjustable gas spring tension.
- 03 Cable management for clutter free appearance.
- 04 Monitor held in any position by tensioned gas spring.
- 05 180° rotatable arm to allow for ergonomic positioning.
- 06 Free-titling design for adjustable viewing angles.
